

Tokyo Financial Award 2021 <ESG Investment Category>

The Tokyo Financial Award recognizes businesses in two categories, "Financial Innovation Category" and "ESG Investment Category" with the aim of enhancing Tokyo's presence as a global financial city, thereby revitalizing the financial sector and improving convenience for Tokyo residents.

Deadline:
Sep. 28th 2021
23:59 (JST)

<ESG Investment Category>

In this category, we ask residents and businesses in Tokyo about their needs and interests related to ESG investment, and call for domestic and foreign financial companies that are active in promoting ESG investment and companies that undertake SDGs practice in the business.

Themes

We call for ESG investment and SDG management initiatives related to the following themes. (applications can be made in either or both subcategories)

【Themes of ESG Investment Subcategory】

From the following eight themes from (a) to (h), choose themes that are related to each initiative (each company can apply two initiatives at maximum).

Environment
(a) Climate change, (b) Natural resources, (c) Environmental market opportunities, etc.
Social
(d) Human capital, (e) Health and safety & Human rights, (f) Consideration for others involved in business operations, etc.
Governance
(g) Corporate governance, (h) Corporate activities, etc.

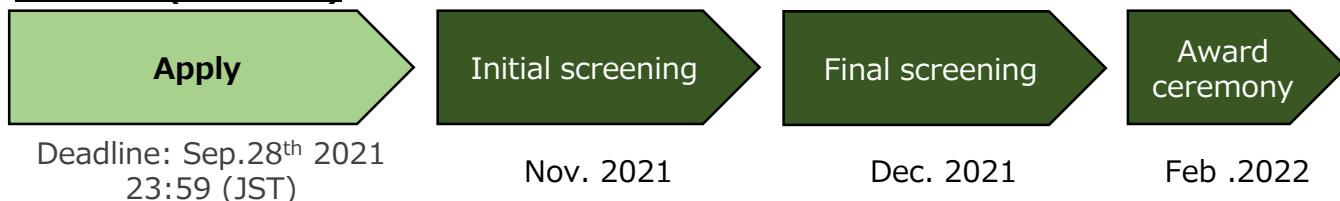

【Themes of SDGs Subcategory】

From the following 17 goals, choose themes that are related to each initiative (each company can apply two initiatives at maximum).

※Source: United Nations Information Centre

Schedule (Tentative)

Last year's award-winning companies

【ESG Investment Subcategory】

Nuveen Japan Co. Ltd.

Works on the improvement of natural environment through investment in agricultural land around the world; and promotes ESG and impact investments in Japan

Impact Investment Exchange

Issues social bonds focused on the promotion of women's social and economic advancement in Asia

【SDGs Subcategory】

Dai Nippon Printing Co., Ltd.

Develops and disseminates environmentally friendly packaging "GREEN PACKAGING" to realize sustainable society

Pigeon Corporation

Supports the promotion of breast milk bank to save the lives of babies born small

For more information on application, please visit the official website of the Tokyo Financial Award.

URL : <https://www.finaward.metro.tokyo.lg.jp/>